Everything happens for a reason and we must understand deeper reasons for all occurrences in our life. Runu makes you see those reasons which lie beyond time and space. Its been over an year that I have been taking Runu's coaching...or shall I say under her care. It has been a life changing experience for me.

The transformation cannot be explained in words, it is something to be experienced. Besides her expertise and knowledge in her field... she has patience and breaks down existentialism in layman terms and gives you answers to the deepest of questions. I call her therapy a movement. And I invite one and all to be a part of it.

Runu's coaching and workshops are the best thing that has ever happened to me. I got the solution to all real life situations after being in touch with my 'core self'.

The Guru Mantra 'I am my own power' is the solution to all the problems. It really works for me all the time. I am blessed to be a part of the Crystalline Light workshops.

Runu is a shining light of generosity, skill, and care. My sessions with her have helped me find the right direction and have solved many issues which were causing hinderance in my life. One of my major issue was regarding my relationship with my husband. There were things happening in our relationship which I was not able to comprehend, I was perplexed and unhappy that inspite of all the positive efforts things were not changing. I tried all kinds of healings that I could get, but nothing seemed to work. After just two sessions with Runu things have changed 360 degrees and I'm blissfully happy in my relationship.

Another major drastic change in my life is regarding the lumps in my breast. I had lumps in my right breast which had the category of Birads -2. Just after a couple of sessions with Runu, I started feeling the heaviness in my chest getting lighter and slowly disappearing. My latest Mammogram shows that the category of lumps has come down to Birads -1. I'm sure with a couple of more sessions the lumps will disappear. As she made me realise that it's more of an emotional storage than anything else.

My journey with her continues as she has uplifted me and my being. Runu's ability to 'tap in' into a person's consciousness and offer clearing is viscerally evident, as is her commitment to assisting others in authentic search for health, happiness and harmony. She serves the Planet and all Beings.

Runu is a very generous listener, and she can see. I've been part of a group where she held the activation greatly, with presence, connection and giving to all of us the best, specific insights.

It helped me so much, and I'm grateful I met her.

In the course of the last 2 years I attended both Runu's individual healing sessions and group channeling events. They have played an important role in my healing journey.

After the coaching with Runu, lots of ongoing issues and past emotional baggage got cleared and healed with magical speed.

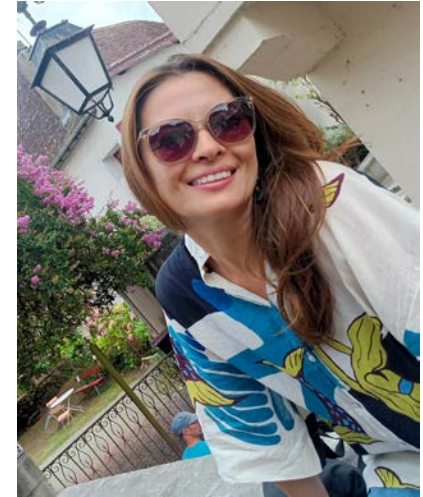

The sense of connection to self, the actual sense of power and purpose arrive as a result.

After Runu's energy channelling session I first started to actually feel the real amazing power of connection with the cosmic energy.

Highly recommend Runu's sessions to spiritual seekers.

I had the opportunity to spontaneously participate in a group session with Runu.

We received a healing transmission, and Runu began channeling some individual messages.

Her messages were very accurate, as I already had some clues about those topics, and they also allowed me to become more aware of certain changes I need to make in my life.

Thank you, Runu, for your help and your gift.

One of the most transformative moments in my life was meeting Runu and Vandana.

Their wisdom opened my eyes to a deeper understanding of existence, revealing that life is more than just breathing and living.

Runu, in particular, introduced me to the intricate rules of the universe and the profound connections between our souls within this complex game called life.

Before meeting them, I felt lost and unambitious. However, through their guidance, I gained clarity and focus, and I discovered the incredible power of manifestation.

These insights were pivotal, and their influence has been invaluable in my personal growth.

Through numerous workshops and personal sessions, I have come to understand life more profoundly and no longer feel adrift. I am deeply grateful to Core and the universe for guiding me to Runu and Vandana. Their impact on my journey has been profound and lasting.

My experience with Celestine Runu has been engaging and refreshing. Runu as a coach is like your friend, embracing empathy and shunning judgementalism. I felt comfortable discussing anything with her.

For someone looking to understand his/her “inner self” -the journey itself and learn many self-empowering Healing tools, I was reminded of a few lines by Irish poet, Seamus Heaney:

*“History says, Don’t hope On this side of the grave
But then, once in a lifetime
The longed-for tidal wave of justice can rise up,
And hope and history rhyme.”*
